IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The city is quiet and orderly.

Noble old Warren county gave a Conservative gain at every precinct.

This section was visited with a heavy rain and thunder storm on yesterday.

A heavy rain storm yesterday delayed for an hour or so the reception of election news at the telegraph office.

We saw some blacks yesterday evening offering to bet on the election of Merrimon—they voted for Caldwell.

Gov. Caldwell was in Charlotte yesterday hungry after election news.—Wonder if he did not get too much of a good thing.

John G. Williams, Esq., President of the State National Bank, returned to this city yesternay from a ten days visit to Beaufort.

Miller & Nelson has always on hand at their neat and well kept saloon under the Market House, Cigars and Baltimore Lager Beer on Ice.

We have Hawk Rogers' word for it that Caldwell will be elected by 15.000 majority. Friday Jones "seconds dat motion."

Greeley stock will improve rapidly in this State now. Who wouldn't be a Greeley man when the Old North State has declared for him.

A grapevine telegraph line was established at the Capital yesterday morning, which gave ont news that pleased Rads and negroes muchly. Caldwell was, of course, there.

The Rads rejoice muchly yesterday over the victory of taking of Holland by the Dutch, or the election of the Radical county ticket.

We hope in a few days to settle down to something like business, when we will try and give our readers something of interest other than political matters and election returns.

Our friends, though exceedingly rejoiced at the glorious election news of yesterday did not manifest the same by noise, cheering, drum beating &c. Sensible men generally act sensible.

Business of every kind has been almost at a stand still in this city for several days. The election has been the all-absorbing topic, and this state of affairs will remain until we learn positively the result of the election.

As soon as the Deputy Marshals can get through electioneering for the Caldwell ticket, we may have some more of the negro kuklux to try at the Commissioner's Court, as warrants are issued and now in the pockets of a so called Marshal.

Pepper of the green front regaled his many customers yesterday with the most delicious turtle soup. He furnishes every day at his popular stand, soup and lunch from and after 11 o'clock. He will have turtle soup again to-day.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to meet in our office yesterday Mr. Jas. S. Pagand, correspondent for several of the leading journals of this country. Mr. Pagand is here awaiting the results of the great event, with which he is much pleased.

We had the pleasure of meeting in our office yesterday evening Dr. H. E. T. Manning, the Editor of the Weldon News, who was in the city looking after the general election returns.

John R. Whitaker, Esq., of Halifax county, was in the city yesterday. He says old Halifax will most heartily unite in the great rejoicing which will be felt by all North Carolinians over the overthrow of Radicalism.

THE RESULT.—With the exception of the defeat of Hon. Sion H. Rogers, the result of the great event is all and more than we could expect.

LOSS AND GAINS.—The following is a carefully prepared statement of the losses and gains in the State as condensed from our telegrams, though all are not official. CONSERVATIVE Majorities based upon Shipp vote of 1870:

Granville, 375; gain 15.
Greene, 141; loss 71.

The most of these statements are based upon official returns.

TOO FULL.—On an occasion similar to the present, when North Carolina first redeemed herself from Radical dishonesty and corruption, we were called upon in Warrenton to address a ratification at about 8 o'clock at night. We excused ourself on the plea of being too full for utterance. We now find ourself too full to write. It is impossible for us or any other man of our way of thinking, who has the capacity to rejoice and ratify, to sit down and write local matter.

Friends, excuse us till our ratification is over.

DEPUTY MARSHAL BARKS.—The gentleman whose name heads this notice is another one of the gang of pets that infest the U. S. Marshal's office in this city that has proved himself derelict in his duties in regard to the arrest of the negro Ku-Klux that attacked the colored Greeley Marshal Cross. Writs were issued by U. S. Commissioner Best and given to him to execute. He places them in his pocket and departs on an electioneering tour to Wilson county.

We ask is there no way to reach these men who treat with contempt the orders of a Court.

600 registered voters in the county did not vote at all.

From the returns, in thus far, the Conservatives have made gains over the Shipp vote of some 3,000, the Republicans a gain of some 2,000. Judge Merrimon's majority thus far is something over 3,000. In the counties yet to hear from the Shipp majority was something less than 4,000, the two making a majority of some 7,000 that the Republicans will have to overcome in the remaining counties in order to have any chance of defeating us.

The Era of this city yesterday evening virtually gave up the contest. The Republicans in the city generally conceded their defeat, although some affect to hope as yet.

The New York Press and the North Carolina Election.

NEW YORK, August 2.

The World's Raleigh special puts Merrimon's majority at 5,000.

The Herald editorially says it is unsafe to hazard a prediction as to the result from the meagre returns at hand, and that after all it is possible the negro counties may give the State to the Republicans.

The Tribune editorially thinks the returns do not warrant any positive statement as to the result; that the gains in the city may prove deceptive, being caused by a return of negroes to their country places of registry.

The Times special claims that the State has gone Republican.

The dispatches received in this city indicate a very quiet election everywhere. Returns were awaited with anxiety here, and the headquarters of the different political parties were crowded until a late hour. Numerous dispatches were received and read, both sides claiming the State.

Amnesty to the Revolutionists--Presidential Election.

MATAMORAS, August 2.

The military authorities yesterday announced general amnesty, restoring the recent Revolutionists to civil and political privileges.

The general election for President occurs shortly.

Democratic and Liberal Convention of Iowa.

DES MOINES, August 2.

The Democratic and Liberal Convention have agreed upon joint candidates except for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

Greeley's Movements.

NEW YORK, August 2.

Greeley goes to Rhode Island on Saturday, where he will remain a few days.

County Election in Tennessee.

MEMPHIS, August 2.

The county election yesterday passed off quietly in this city. The Democratic ticket, with Doyle for sheriff, is elected, by about 200 majority. In one of the country districts there was some shooting, and two men are reported killed.

McFarland, for Supreme Judge, has 2 majority.

Nominated for Congress.

CINCINNATI, August 2.

The Democratic Convention of the 7th Ohio District, after 163 ballots, nominated L. T. Neal for Congress.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.

The Department of Agriculture today commenced the distribution of several superior qualities of fall wheat to all the States and territories adapted to its growth. This distribution will be completed during the current month, thus giving ample time for sowing in all the lower counties where winter wheat is cultivated. A large distribution of rye will follow this distribution of fall wheat. The Department has made arrangements for an early distribution of vegetable and grass seeds to its correspondents and others in the South.

Settle telegraphs the Post Master General that he is elected.

Judge Cochrane goes South to-night in the interest of the holders of Georgia bonds, having been retained to present their rights as bona fide purchasers.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, August 2.

The low barometer North of Virginia move slowly eastward over the Middle States with southerly and easterly winds and partly cloudly and cool weather, clearing by Saturday, and cloudy weather with occasional light rains on the new England coast; northerly and westerly winds veering to northeasterly from Iowa to Lake Ontario and southward through the Mississippi and Ohio valleys with clear cool weather. No reports are received from the Gulf, but clear weather and northerly winds may be expected, and on the South Atlantic. Clearing weather and light northerly winds veering to easterly.

The North Carolina Election.

WASHINGTON, August 2.

Many wild and contradictory dispatches have been received from North Carolina. Indications at this hour are 10,000 majority for Merrimon, and 7 Congressmen.

A dispatch from Greensboro reports gains from the West. Agents have been cautioned to be careful, and the Raleigh dispatch dated 2 o'clock may be regarded as safe.

Estimate in New York of the North Carolina Election.

NEW YORK, August 2.

The despatches received at the Liberal Republican and Democratic headquarters here to-day confirm the news of Democratic gains in North Carolina, and estimate Merrimon's majority at 10,000. There is a gain of 300 in Rockingham county, securing the election of Leach over Settle in the 5th district.

IRREVERENCE.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND I LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE RIGHTEOUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'"—Delano in his speech at Raleigh.

We surrender a large portion of this issue to the letter of Mr. Sumner and to the election news.

WHO IS GUILTY?

Republicans cast the imputation on the Democracy that frauds were practiced in the late election. It was charged, as soon as they began to think that the State would go Democratic, that such would be the case, and, indeed, a letter was written to a New York paper giving up the State to the Democrats, and declaring that the State would be carried by fraud.

Did any one ever hear of such brazen charges? When it is known to every one that the Republican party has always, ever since its existence in the South, practiced the most open and shameless frauds, when it has ever been the synonim for fraud and corruption, a charge of this sort falls with a bad grace from members of that organization.

The members of the opposition are disposed to attribute to the people the wrong motive. If defeat is Republicans' lot, and we unhesitatingly say that we believe it is, a solution of the cause of such a happy event may be found in the fact that the Democracy of North Carolina had great interests at stake, that they were patriotic and determined and that vigilance on the part of our friends was a prominent feature of the campaign.

Let not Republicans, with an audacity which is immeasurably cool, prate of fraud, the Democracy of North Carolina is guilty of no such offense and let our opponents first cure themselves of that disease which is a part of their existence.

It would indeed be an anomoly in an election if Republicans did not practice frauds on a large scale, such as importing negroes, as is charged in the election just passed, voting negroes not entitled to the privilege and other such acts as these.

Now, in the face of the facts which are known to the public, we ask, who is guilty?

NORTH CAROLINA REDEEMED.

From the lights before us, we can only conclude that victory has perched upon the banner of the Democracy and that North Carolina is redeemed from the low condition into which she has been sunk by corrupt officials.

From every direction we hear the most encouraging reports for the Democratic ticket, and if the State goes Republican, large gains must necessarily be made over the whole State.

From our data we say to our friends the victory is ours; a day of great rejoicing has dawned upon North Carolina, and from the mountains to the seashore, cries of joy will ascend from the fullness of the hearts of her people.

DISGUSTING HIM.

So completely disgusted have Grant's political friends become with his cause, that they are daily dropping off from his support, and should the good work continue as it has begun, by November his Excellency will have only a few to rally to his support.

The Treasury Department decides that silk crape, which has heretofore paid a duty of sixty per cent., is entitled to entry at fifty per cent., and the collector of New York has been so instructed.

THE SUMNER CORRESPONDENCE.

Letter From Certain Colored Men to Mr. Sumner and His Reply Advising Them and Their Race to Vote for Horace Greeley.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.

The following correspondence has taken place between Charles Sumner and colored citizens of the United States:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11, 1872.

SIR: We, the undersigned, citizens of color, regarding you as the purest and best friend of our race, admiring your consistent course in the United States Senate and elsewhere as the special advocate of our rights, and believing that your counsel at this critical juncture in the period of our citizenship would be free from personal feeling and partisan prejudice, have ventured to request your opinion as to what action the colored voters of the nation should take in the Presidential contest now pending. The choice of our people is now narrowed down to General Grant or Horace Greeley. Your long acquaintance with both, and your observation have enabled you to arrive at a correct conclusion as to which of the candidates, judging from their antecedents as well as their present position, will, if elected, enforce the requirements of the Constitution and the laws respecting our civil and political rights with the most heartfelt sympathy and the greatest vigor. We hope and trust you will favor us with such reply as will serve to enlighten our minds upon this subject, and impel our people to go forward in the right direction. Our confidence in your judgment is so firm, that in our opinions thousands of the intelligent colored voters of the country will be guided in their action by your statement and advice.

Hoping to receive a reply soon, we have the honor to be, with great respect, your obedient servants (Signed), A. T. Augusta, M. D., David Fisher, Sr., Jno. H. Smith, Edward Cruser, William H. A. Wormley, William P. Wilson, R. W. Tompkins, John H. Brown, Henry Lacy, W. H. Belt, J. L N. Bowen, M. D., Jacob De Witler, Samuel Proctor, J. J. Ketchum, Charles N. Thomas, William H. Shorter, Henry Hill, Thurman J. Shadd, George D. Johnson, Christopher A. Fleetwood, Charles F. Bruce, David Fisher, Jr., David King, William Polkeny.

Hon. Charles Sumner.

MR. SUMNER'S REPLY.

WASHINGTON, July 29, 1872.

GENTLEMEN AND FELLOW-CITIZENS: If I have delayed answering your communication of July 11, which was duly placed in my hands by your committee, it is not because the proper course for you seemed doubtful, but because I wished to reflect upon it and be aided by the information which time might supply. Since then I have carefully considered the inquiries you have addressed me and listened to much on both sides, but my best judgment is in harmony with my early conclusion. I am touched by the appeal you make. It is true I am the friend of your race, and I am glad to be assured that in your opinion I have held a constant course in the Senate and elsewhere as the special advocate of your rights. That course, by the blessing of God, I mean to hold so long as life lasts. I know your infinite wrongs, and feel for them as my own. You only do me simple justice when you add a belief that my counsel at this critical juncture of your citizenship would be free from personal feelings and partizan prejudice. In answering your inquiries I can have no feelings except for your good, which I most anxiously seek, nor can any prejudice of any kind be allowed to interfere. The occasion is too solemn. Especially is there no room for personal feeling or for partizan prejudice. No man or party can expect power except for the general welfare. Therefore they must be brought to the standard of truth that they may be seen in life and act. You are right in saying that the choice for the Presidency is now "narrowed down" to

PRESIDENT GRANT OR HORACE GREELEY.

One of these is to be taken; and assuming my acquaintance with both and my observation of their lives you invite my judgment between them, asking me especially which of the two, judging from their antecedents as well as present position, would enforce the Constitution and laws securing your civil and political rights with the most heartfelt sympathy and greatest vigor. Here I remark that in this inquiry you naturally put your rights in the foreground. So do I, believing most sincerely that the best interests of the whole country are associated with the completest recognition of your rights, so that two races shall live together in unbroken harmony. I also remark that you call attention to two things: The "antecedents" of the two candidates, and, secondly, their "present position." You wish to know from these which gives assurance of the most heartfelt sympathy and greatest vigor in the maintenance of your rights. In other words, which, judging from the past, will be your truest friend. The communication with which you have honored me is not alone. Colored fellow citizens in other parts of the country—I may say in nearly every State of the Union—have made a similar request; and some complain that I have thus far kept silent. I am not insensible to this appeal; but if my opinion is given, it must be candidly, according to my conscience. In this spirit I answer your inquiries, beginning with the

ANTECEDENTS OF THE TWO CANDIDATES.

Horace Greeley was born to poverty, and educated himself in a printing office. President Grant, fortunate in early patronage, became a cadet at West Point, and was educated at the public expense. One started with nothing but industry and a character; the other started with a military commission. One was trained as a civilian, the other as a soldier. Horace Greeley stood forth as a reformer and abolitionist; President Grant enlisted as a pro-slavery Democrat and at the election of James Buchanan, fortified by his vote all the pretensions of slavery, including the Dred Scott Decision. Horace Greeley from early life was earnest and constant against slavery; full of sympathy with the colored race, and always foremost in the great battle for their rights. President Grant, except as a soldier, summoned by the terrible accident of war, never did anything against slavery, nor has he at any time shown any sympathy with the colored race. Horace Greeley desired that the colored citizens should vote, and ably championed impartial suffrage; but President Grant was on the other side. Beyond these contrasts, which are marked, it cannot be forgotten that Horace Greeley is a person of large heart and large understanding, trained to the support of human rights, always beneficent with the poor, always ready for any good cause, and never deterred by opposition or reproach, as when for long years he befriended your people. Add to these qualities, conspicuous in his life, untiring industry, which leaves no moment without its fruit; abundant political knowledge, acquaintance with history, the instinct and grasp of statesmanship, an amiable nature, a magnanimous soul, and above all an honesty which no suspicion has touched, and you have a brief portraiture. These are the antecedents of Horace Greeley. Few of these things appear in the President His great success in war and the honors he has won cannot change the record of his conduct towards your people, especially in contrast with the lifetime fidelity of his competitor; while there are unhappy antecedents showing that in the prosecution of his plans he cares nothing for the colored race. The story is painful, but it must be told.

* * * * * * * *

GRANT'S PROSCRIPTION OF COLORED MEN.

Nor can it be forgotten that shortly afterward, on the return of the Commission from this island, the Hon. Frederick Douglass, the colored orator, accomplished in manners as in eloquence, was thrust away from the company of the Commissioners at the common table of the mail packet on the Potomac, almost within sight of the Executive Mansion, simply on account of his color. But the President, at whose invitation he had joined the Commission, never uttered a word in condemnation of this exclusion, and when entertaining the returned Commissioners at dinner, carefully omtted Mr. Douglass, who was in Washington at the time, and thus repeated the indignity. Other things might be mentioned as showing the sympathies of the President, but I cannot forget

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL,

which is the capstone of that equality before the law to which all are entitled, without distinction of color. President Grant, who could lobby so assiduously for his San Domingo scheme, full of wrong to the colored race, could do nothing for this beneficent measure. During a long session of Congress it was discussed constantly, and the colored people everywhere hung upon the debate, but there was no word of "heartfelt sympathy" from the President. At last, just before the nominating convention, he addressed a letter to a meeting of colored fellow-citizens in Washington, called to advance this cause, where he avoided the question by declaring himself in favor of "the exercise of those rights to which every citizen should be justly entitled," leaving it uncertain whether colored people are justly entitled to the rights secured by the pending bill. I understand Horace Greeley has been already assailed by an impracticable Democrat as being friendly to this bill, but nobody has lisped against President Grant on this account. Among the antecedents I deem it my duty to mention the little capacity of industry of the President in protecting colored people and in assuring peace at the South. Nobody can doubt that a small portion of the effort and earnest will, even without the lobbying so freely given to the Santo Domingo scheme, would have averted those Ku-klux outrages which we deplore, so that there would have been no pretence for further legislation by Congress. But he was disabled both by character and the drawbacks of his own conduct. After violating the Constitution and international law to insult the black republic, and setting an example of insubordination, he was not in a condition to rebuke law-breakers. Second—Passing from "antecedents," I come now to the

PRESENT POSITION OF THE TWO CANDIDATES,

which is the subject of your next inquiry. If in any former particulars the two are on an equality, yet, in all substantial respects, the obvious advantage is with Horace Greeley. Each was nominated by a reform Convention—one at Cincinnati, and the other at Philadelphia—so that in this respect they may seem to be on an equality. But it will not fail to be observed that the Convention at Cincinnati was composed of able and acknowledged Republicans, many of whom have acted with the party from its first formation, who, without previous organization, came together voluntarily for the sake of reform and purity in the Government; while on the other hand, the Convention at Philadelphia was composed of delegates chosen largely under the influence of office holders, who assembled to sustain what is known as Grantism, being the personal Government and personal pretensions of President Grant, involving nepotism, repayment of gifts by official patronage, neglect of public duty, absenteeism, military rule, disregard of Constitution and law, with general unfitness, and indignity to the colored race. All of which is so unrepublican as to make its support impossible for true Republicans. Therefore, the Convention at Philadelphia, though calling itself Republican, was less Republican than that at Cincinnati. The two platforms, so far as concerns especially the colored race, are alike in substance, but that of Cincinati is expressed in terms most worthy. Of the equal rights it states and claims: "We recognize the equality of all men before the law, and hold that it is the duty of the Government in its dealings with the people to mete out equal and exact justice to all, of whatever nativity, race, color, or persuasion, religious or political." In other respects the platform of Cincinnati is the most Republican, inasmuch as it sets itself against these unrepublican abuses which have been nursed by the President into pernicious activity. From the two nominations and the two platforms I come to and here I look first at those immediately about them, and secondly at the popular support behind. Horace Greeley has among his immediate supporters in all parts of the country devoted and consistent Republicans, always earnest for reform and purity in government, on whose lives there is no shadow of suspicion; being a contrast in character to those rings which play such a part in the present Administration. The country knows too well the military ring, the Senatorial ring, and Custom house ring, through which the President acts. Such supporters are a very poor recommendation. Looking to the popular support behind, the advantage is still with Horace Greeley President Grant has at his back the diversified army of office-holders drilled to obey the word of command. The speeches praising him are by office-holders and members of rings. Horace Greeley finds flocking to his support large numbers of Republicans unwilling to continue the existing misrule, and as allies with them a regenerated party, which comes forward to unite in the Liberal movement.

THE SUPPORTERS OF THE CANDIDATES,

THE DEMOCRACY.

Democrats in joining Horace Greeley have changed simply as President Grant changed when he joined the Republicans, except that he was rewarded at once with a high office. The change is open. Adopting the Republican platform, which places equal rights of all under the safeguard of irreversible guarantees, and at the same time accepting the nomination of a life-long abolitionist, who represents pre eminently the sentiment of duty to the colored race, they have set their corporate seal to the sacred covenant. They may continue Democrats in name, but they are in reality Republicans, by the same title that those who sustain republican principles are Republicans. Or rather they are Democrats according to the original signification of that word dedicated to the rights of the people. It is idle to say that Horace Greeley and the Republicans that nominated him are any less republican because Democrats unite with them in support of cherished principles and the candidate who represents them.

Conversions are always welcome, and not less so because the change is in a multitude other than an individual. A political party cannot if it would, and should not if it could, shut the door against converts, whether counted by the score, the hundred, or the thousand; and so we find the supporters of President Grant announce with partizan triumph the adhesion of a single Democratic politician or a single Democratic newspaper. On equal reason and with high pride may the supporters of Horace Greeley announce the adhesion of the Democratic party which, turning from the things that are behind, presses on to those that are before. It is also idle to say that the election of Horace Greeley as President, with Gratz Brown as Vice President, both unchangeable Republicans, will be the return of the Democratic party to power. On the contrary, it will be the inauguration of Republican principles under the safeguard of a Republican President and Republican Vice-President, with Democrats as avowed supporters. In the organization of his Administration and in the conduct of affairs Horace Greeley will naturally lean upon those who represent best the great promises made of equal rights and reconciliation at Cincinnati. It Democrats are taken, it will be as Republicans at heart, recognizing the associate terms of the settlement as an irreversible finality.—The hardihood of political falsehood reaches its extreme point when it is asserted that under Horace Greeley the freedmen will be enslaved or that the colored people will in any way suffer in their equal rights. On the contrary, they have in his election, not only the promises of the platform, but also the splendid example for a full generation, during which he has never wavered in the assertion of their rights. To suppose that Horace Greeley, when placed where he can do them the most good, will depart from the rule of his honest life is an insult to reason. It is none the less idle to suppose that Democrats supporting Horace Greeley expect or desire that he should depart from those principles which are the glory of his character. They have accepted the Cincinnati platform with its two fold promises, and intend in good faith to maintain it. Democrats cannot turn back who, at the Convention adopting this platform, sang Greeley songs to the tune of "Old John Brown; his soul is marching on." Seeking especially the establishment of character in the national Government they will expect their President to be always true to himself. Therefore, I put aside the partisan allegations that Horace Greeley has gone to the Democrats, or that he will be controlled by the Democrats, each, is without foundation or reason, according to my judgment. They are attempts to avoid what you recognize as the true issue, being the question between the two candidates; or perhaps they may be considered as scarecrows to deter the timid. Nobody who votes for Horace Greeley will go to the Democrats; nor do I believe that when elected, Horace Greeley will be under any influence except that enlightened conscience which will keep him ever true to the principles he represents

VOTE FOR GREELEY AND BROWN.

Gentlemen: In thus answering your two inquiries, I have shown why you, as colored fellow-citizens, and also all who would uphold your rights and save the colored race from indignity, should refuse to sanction the re-election of the President, and put your trust in Horace Greeley. I ought to add that with him will be associated, as Vice President, Brown, whom I have known for years as a most determined abolitionist. The two together will carry into the National Government an unswerving devotion to your rights not to be disturbed by partisan dictation or sectional prejudice. Besides all this which may fitly guide you in determining between the two candidates, it is my duty to remind you that, as citizens of the United States and part of the country, your welfare is indissolubly associated with that of the whole country. Where all are prosperous, you will be gainers. Therefore, while justly careful of your own rights, you cannot be indifferent to the blessing of good government. It is for you to consider whether the time has not come for something better than the sword, and whether a character like Horace Greeley does not give a stronger assurance of good government than can be found in the insulter of the colored race, already famous from the rings about him, and his plain inaptitude for civil life. The supporters of President Grant compel us to observe his offences and shortcomings. The comparison they challenge cannot be declined; it will be for others in the present canvass to hold it before the American people. Speaking now for myself, I have to say that my vote will be given for Horace Greeley, but in giving it I do not go to the Democratic party, nor am I any less a Republican. On the contrary I am so much a Republican that I cannot support a candidate whose conduct in civil life shows an incapacity to appreciate Republican principles, and whose Administration is marked by acts of delinquency, especially towards the colored race, by the side of which the allegations on the impeachment of Andrew Johnson were technical and trivial. Unquestionably President Grant deserves impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors rather than a renomination, and on the trial it would have been enough to exhibit his seizure of the war power and his indignity to the black republic, with its population of 800,000, in violation of the national constitution and international law.

* * * * * * *

THE RECONCILIATION MOVEMENT.

Allow me to call attention to another and controlling consideration which cannot be neglected by the good citizen. Watching the remarkable movement which has ended in the double nomination of Horace Greeley, it is easy to see that it did not proceed from politicians, whether at Cincinnati or Baltimore. Evidently it was the heart of the people, severely wrung by war and the controversies it engendered, which found this expression. Sir Phillip Sidney said of the uprising in the Netherlands: "It is the spirit of the Lord, and is irrisistible;" and such a spirit is manifest now, notwithstanding the counteracting influence of politicians, Republican and Democratic. In the face of persistent ridicule, and against the extravagance and unscrupulous opposition, the nomination at Cincinnati was triumphantly adopted at Baltimore. Such an unprecedented victory, without concert or proposition of any kind can be explained only by supposing that it is in harmony with a popular longing. That Democrats, and especially those of the South, should adopt a lifetime abolitionist for President is an assurance of willingness to respect the rights of their colored fellow-citizens with that reconstruction of which Horace Greeley was an early representative. In standing by Jefferson Davis at his trial and signing his bail bond, he showed the same sentiment of humanity he so constantly displayed in standing by the colored race throughout their prolonged trial, so that the two discordant races find kindred hospitality in him, and he thus becomes a tie of union. The nomination has been adopted by the Democrats in convention assembled. This was an event which the supporters of President Grant declared impossible. I do not see how it can be regarded as otherwise than as a peace offering. As such it is of infinite value. It is a revolution, and its success in pacifying the country will be in proportion to its acceptance by us. I dare not neglect the great opportunity, nor can I stand aloof. It is in harmony with my life, which places peace above all things except the rights of man. Thus far in constant efforts for the colored race I have sincerely sought the good of all, which I was sure would be best obtained in fulfilling the promises of the Declaration of Independence; making all equal in rights. The spirit in which I acted appears in an early speech, when I said: "Nothing in hate, nothing in vengeance." Never have I asked for punishment. Most anxiously have I looked for the time, which seems now at hand, when there shall be reconciliation not only between the two races, so that the two sections and the two races may be lifted from the ruts and grooves in which they are now fastened, and instead of irritating antagonism without end, there shall be sympathetic co-operation. The existing differences ought to be ended. There is a time for all things, and we are admonished by a wide-spread popular uprising, bursting the bonds of party, that the time has come for estrangement to cease between people who, by the ordinance of God, must live together. Gladly I welcome the happy signs. Nor can I observe without regret the colored people in organized masses resisting the friendly overtures, even to the extent of intimidating those who are the other way. It is for them to consider carefully whether they should not take advantage of the unexpected opening and recognize the bail-bond given at Baltimore as the assurance of peace, holding the parties to the full performance of its conditions; provided always that their rights are fixed. I am sure it cannot be best for the colored people to band together in hostile camp, provoking antagonism, and keeping alive the separation of races. Above all, there must be no intimidation; but every voter must act freely, without constraint from league or lodge. Much better will it be when the two political parties compete for your support. Only then will that citizenship, by which you are entitled to the equal rights of all, have its full fruits. Only then will there be that harmony which is essential to a true civilization. The present position of the colored citizen is in peril. He is exposed to injurious pressure where he needs support; but I see no early extrication, except in the way now proposed. Let him cut adrift from managers who would wield him merely as a political force, with little regard to his own good, and bravely stand by the candidate who has stood by him. If Democrats unite with him, so much the better. The association once begun must naturally ripen in common friendship and trust. I am for peace in reality as in name. From the bottom of my heart I am for peace, and I welcome all that makes for peace. With deep felt satisfaction I remember that no citizen who drew his sword against us has suffered by the hand of the executioner. In just association with this humanity will be the triumph of equal rights, when the promises of the great declaration are all fulfilled and our people are united as never before in the enduring friendship of a common citizenship. To this end there must be reconciliation; nor can I withhold my hand. Freely I accept the hand that is offered, and reach forth my own in friendly grasp. I am

AGAINST THE POLICY OF HATE;

I am against fanning ancient flames into continued life; I am against raking in the ashes of the past for coals of fire yet burning. Pile up the ashes, extinguish the flames, abolish the hate; such is my desire. And now turning to the Democratic party, I hold it to all the covenants solemnly given in the adoption of a Republican platform with Horace Greeley as the candidate. There can be no backward step. With no common sympathy I have observed that Mr. Hendricks, a leading Democrat I knew and esteemed in the Senate, has recently announced his acceptance of the constitutional amendments with their logical results. He proposes as a proper key-note to the extraordinary movement now swelling to a sure triumph—"Just laws and public virtue." This is a worthy aspiration, entirely fit on this occasion. My key-note is, "The Unity of the republic and the equal rights of all, with reconciliation." Such is my cry, and, wherever my voice can reach, there do I insist upon all these, humbly invoking the blessing of divine Providence, which, I believe, must rest upon such a cause.

Accept my best wishes for yourselves personally and for the people you represent, and believe me, gentlemen, to be your faithful friend,

CHARLES SUMNER.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

MIDSUMMER MALADIES.—The hot solar rays that ripen the harvests generate many distressing diseases. If the liver be at all predisposed to irregularities, this is the season in which bilious attacks may be anticipated. A weak stomach, too, is weakest in the summer months, and the loss of vitality through the pores by excessive perspiration is so great, that a wholesome tonic, combining also the properties of a diffusive stimulant and gentle exhilarant, is in many cases necessary to health, and under no circumstances should be dispensed with by the sickly and debilitated. Of all the preparations intended thus to refresh, sustain and fortify the human frame, there is none that will compare with Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. They have been weighed in the balance of experience and not found wanting; have been recommended from the first as a great medical specific, not as a beverage, and in spite of interested opposition from innumerable quarters, stand, after a twenty years trial, at the head of all proprietary medicines intended for the prevention and cure of all ordinary complaints of the stomach, the liver, the bowels, and the nerves. In the unhealthy districts bordering the great rivers of California, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be classed as the standard one for every species of intermittent or remittent fever. The people who inhabit these districts, place the most implicit confidence in the preparation—a confidence that is increased every year by the results of its operation.

As bitters, so called, of the most pernicious character, are springing up like fungi on every side, the public is hereby forewarned against the dram-shop frauds. Ask for Hostetter's Bitters, see that the label, etc. are correct, and remember that the genuine article is never sold in bulk, but by the bottle only.

"THE LIFE OF THE FLESH IS THE BLOOD." This being [illegible] is very obvious that when the blood becomes [illegible] the whole system becomes [illegible]. To relieve this, the true policy undoubtedly is to direct the remedy to the source of the disease. It is in this manner that Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla and Queens delight acts. Its specific effect is on the blood; it purifies it, vitalizes it, and expels all distemper from the system.

Being free from violent Minerals, it is adapted to general use. The old and young may use it; the most delicate female, at any time, may take it; the weak an enfeebled may take it; the tender infant, who may have inherited diseases, will be cured by it.

For Syphlis, and all its trains of evils, it is a sure antidote.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills are a mild and gentle purgative, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving congestive or torpid liver. They have no equal.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye Imparts a Glossy Color.

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a STANDARD RESTORATIVE an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? PLANTATION BITTERS has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico, who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., in his book on Chronic Diseases, says in regard to his Golden Medical Discovery, with which our readers are familiar: "From its wonderful power over Consumption of the Lungs, I had thought strongly of calling it my Consumptive Cure; but from the fact that it is a perfect specific for the sore throat and hoarseness to which ministers and public speakers and singers are subject, and also for Bronchitis, and all severe Coughs, and is an invaluable remedy for diseases of the Liver, and also as a Blood Purifier, I decided not to apply to it a name which might mislead and prevent its use in other diseases for which it is so admirably adapted.

"It will cure a cough in one half the time necessary to cure it with any other medicine, and it does it more by curing it up, but by removing the cause—subduing the irritation and healing the affected parts."

This valuable medicine is sold by all first class druggists.

A NEW BEAUTIFYING AGENT.—All Dentifrices had their drawbacks, until the Salubrious Bark of the Soap Tree was brought from the Chilian Valleys to perfect the fragrant Sozodont, the most delightful article for the teeth that a brush was ever dipped into.

"CHILDREN'S LIVES SAVED FOR 50 CENTS."—Every case of Croup can be cured when first taken, by Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment, warranted for 24 years, and never a bottle returned. It also cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Sore throat, Cuts, Burns, and External Pains. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

VENUS herself would not have been beautiful if her complexion had been bad. If beauty is skin deep, it is necessary to secure and retain that part of it; and ladies, instead of resorting to paints and powders, should remember that an impure, blotchy, or sallow skin is the proof of feeble digestion, torpid liver, or vitiated blood, for all which Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters is a safe, sure and effectual remedy.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.—No oils, neither pomades or alchohclic washes—foreign or domestic—can compare with Cocoaine as a hair Dressing. It anchors the hair firmly in the scalp—gives it new life and lustre—and renders it the "crowning glory" of both sexes, young and old.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.—More accidents occur from using unsafe oils, than from steamboats and railroads combined. Over 200,000 families continue to burn Pratt's Astral Oil, and no accidents directly or indirectly have occurred from burning, storing or handling it. Old house of Chas. Pratt. Established 1770, New York.

A BEAUTIFUL WHITE, soft, smooth and clear skin is produced by using G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." It removes tan, freckles, sun, and all other discolorations from the skin, leaving the complexion brilliant and beautiful. Sold at all druggists. This preparation is entirely free from any material detrimental to health.

JUST THE REMEDY NEEDED.—Thanks to Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, we have been relieved from sleepless nights of painful watching with poor, suffering, teething children.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers. The Perro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

RISLEY'S GENUINE GOLDEN BELL COLOGNE WATER according to the original formula of Prevost, Paris, so long and favorably known to the customers of Havilland, Harral and Risley and their branches, for its permanent fragrance is now made by H. W. Risley and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, Wholesale Druggists, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

CARBOLIC SALVE unequalled as a Healing Compound. Physicians recommend it as the most wonderful remedy ever known. Price 25 cents per box. John F. Henry, Sole Proprietor, 8 College Place, New York.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.—This magnificent compound is beyond contingency, the safest and most reliable Dye in existence; never failing to impart to the Hair uniformity of color, nourishment and elasticity. Manufactury, 68 Maiden Lane, New York SYAPNIA is Opium purified of its sickening and poisonous qualities. It is a perfect anodyne not producing headache or constipation of bowels, as is the case with other preparations of opium. John Farr, Chemist, New York.

KOSKOO.—This celebrated Medicine has attained a high reputation, as a reliable remedy for Purifying the Blood, Restoring the Liver and Kidneys to a healthy action and "Toning up" the Nervous System. Its numerous and remarkable cures of the worst forms of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Kidney Disease, Eruptions of the Skin, Nervous Prostration, &c., has caused it to become a standard remedy. It is now prescribed by physicians, and recommended by our best citizens. mh1-1am

We read of a son of Edward Rutledge, of South Carolina—one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence—who is said to be still alive in Illinois, at the age of 103. He was a boy of seven years when the bell of liberty rang in Philadelphia.

There are hot and cold springs at the Sulphur Springs of Virginia. It is said that rheumatic patients find the hot springs as beneficial as the baths at Wiesbaden, in Germany. THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE FOR SALE.

By virtue of a judgment rendered at Spring Term, 1872, of the Superior Court of Wake County, in the action entitled William R. Pool, Executor of Edward Yarborough, dec'd, vs. Hannah H. Yarborough and others, the heirs and devisers of the said decendent, I will on expose to public sale, on the premises, the valuable property known as the Yarborough Hotel.

The 31st Day of August Next,

Said property is situated on the Eastern side of Fayetteville Street, in the city of Raleigh, and embraces about one acre of ground—it is one of the most central points in the city, being not more than four hundred yards distant from the Depots of the Raleigh & Gaston, the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, and the North Carolina Railroads; within one hundred yards of the proposed Masonic Temple; the same distance from the Post-office and Federal Court House; on the opposite side of the street from the New County Court House, and within five minutes walk of the Capital.

The hotel building is three stories high and contains forty-seven guest chambers, dining room, two parlors, a reception room, office and three family rooms. The rooms are commodious and well ventilated; the passages are broad and spacious; the dining room, parlors and office are large, lighted and comfortable, both in summer and winter.

All the buildings on the premises are in excellent order, and afford every convenience to hotel keeping.

The terms are as follows: One-fourth of the purchase money in cash; the residue in three equal instalments, bearing interest, six, twelve and eighteen months from the day of sale; the first of the credit instalments to be secured by bond with at least two good surety, title withheld until payment of the purchase money; and so long as any part of the purchase money remains unpaid, the purchaser to insure the buildings on said lot, in a sum equal to such unpaid balance, the loss, if any, to be applied to the payment of said purchase money; and should the purchaser fail so to insure the said buildings, I shall have the power to effect such insurance and the money so expended by me to be deemed a part of the purchase money, bearing interest from date of expenditure, and be payable at the same time with the instalment of purchase money next thereafter falling due.

Ex. of Edward Yarborough, dec'd.

Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Howe Sewing Machine":

We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a "help" to those of us with large families, as a "sine qua non." We have made with it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., some of which were heavily trimmed, two of the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of tucking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE

COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other states, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th, ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of tuousands of Dollars in Life Premeams are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

LOVE LAND.

There's a far off mystic country
Sunned by Hope's eternal gleam,
In whose fair and pleasant valleys
I have wandered in a dream,
Where the brooklets run to music
'Twixt their emerald banks along,
Where the forest waves in anthems,
Swayed by breezes winged with song.

There the whole great heart of nature
Throbs with melody for aye,
And the flowers that bud and blossom,
Never wither, fade or die.
But for me the clime is distant,
Distant far as morning's beam,
Though in its fair and pleasant valleys
I have lingered in a dream.

And a pure and radiant being
Leads me gently by the hand,
When through slumber's dusky portals
Joyfully I seek that land.
And beside me in her beauty,
Lingers like the shimmering beam
Of some star that shines in heaven,
Till I waken from my dream.

That mysterious, far off country
In the glorious land of Love,
Where love is love forever,
And all other things above—
And my heart yearns toward that being
As I breast life's rapid stream,
Ever distant from me, waking,
Ever near me in my dream.

Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.
We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone, (having a better record for cotton than those) to Planters and Dealers—in any quantity—at any railroad depot in the State, or at the factory, upon satisfactory terms.
Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for $50 cash.
